

Holy Wars

We live in a time where the words Muslim, Islam, and Jihad seem to be synonymous with Terrorist. On Sunday, April 23rd, we were gifted with a presentation by Fatih Sezgin on Islam and Jihad. Fatih Sezgin is a Turkish scholar who has done a dissertation on the historical vs. present-day understanding of jihad. Last year, he was all set to defend his dissertation and earn his PhD when the so-called “attempted coup” was staged in Turkey. This “attempted coup” seems to have been used as a pretext for declaring martial law and to allow the government to imprison or silence any opposing voices. Mr. Sezgin was viewed as one of these of these voices. Hence, he has ended up in Canada as a political refugee.

In his presentation, Mr. Sezgin, presented a background on jihad with many references to the Qu’ran (the holy book of Islam). Below are some of the nuggets, thoughts and insights that stuck with me.

Islam means peace—The name of the religion itself is derived from the Arabic word salema which is derived from the Hebrew word shalom. Shalom is the word used to describe the peace of God and God’s intention of well-being.

The Qu’ran forbids terrorism — There are verses in the Qu’ran that say that it is forbidden to kill women and children or destroy livestock. The sense of what the Qu’ran allows (with regard to war) is self-defense.

The Greater and Lesser Jihads — The Qu’ran speaks of the two types of jihad. The Greater Jihad (the more important one) is the war within oneself to live a pure, righteous life. To strive against those impulses that would harm or diminish the neighbor. The Lesser Jihad is to struggle against the physical or tangible systems that are unjust and work against life and well-being.

Context is decisive—The Qu’ran was written at different times and in different places. Hence, the teachings were given to deal with particular circumstances. Some were given (i.e. in Mecca) when muslims were a small minority and dealt with issues of how to relate to society in that context. Others were given to the established community in Medina where Islam was dominant. Understanding the context helps in a responsible interpretation of a verse.

Proof-texting is problematic—Mr. Sezgin pointed out that quite often a single verse from the Qu’ran is quoted in support of an assertion or to be the answer to what the Qu’ran says about a particular topic. This can be very problematic. Finding a verse to prove one’s point may or may not have integrity with the overall teaching in the book. For example, the Bible quotes Jesus as saying, “An eye for eye and a tooth for a tooth.” To quote that as representative of Jesus’ teaching would be ridiculous.

Religion can be used as a tool by those thirsting power—It was clear to Mr. Sezgin that less-than-scrupulous leaders have recognized that appealing to Islam can be an effective way to gain and hold power.

As I listened to Mr. Sezgin, it resonated that Christianity struggles with many of these same issues:

- Whose biblical interpretation is right?
- What does it really mean to be a Christian?
- How do we resolve conflicting verses in the Bible?
- Is the Bible primarily about others or about ourselves?
- How has Christianity been perverted or corrupted in the past?
- How might it be perverted or corrupted now?

Above all, I came away with a very clear sense that it is good to listen to and to get to know others. There is something divine and godly at work when we overcome our fear of people who are different from us and risk getting to know them and to become friends. My prayers are certainly with our brothers and sisters in Islam who seek to be our partners in creating a world of peace.

Peace,
Salema,
Shalom,

Great Gardening Opportunities!

Our Mission Statement:

Lord help us :

To promote stewardship in our Community

To provide food for the greater Community who are in need

To grow in community and outreach at ELCOC

As most of you know, the planting, weeding, harvesting, whatever is required in our community vegetable garden and flower gardens has for several years been tended to by our Kononia Garden Group. We are a small group, and as much as we love gardening, increasingly we find ourselves short of labour and energy. Therefore, we would like to offer all of you garden opportunities at your own convenience.

Rather than schedule the planting, weeding and harvesting of the vegetable plot for weekdays, we will be scheduling most of these activities for evenings and Saturdays to accommodate those who have expressed interest but are simply not able to help because of work commitments.

As well, rather than ask individuals or families to take responsibility for selecting a vegetable, planting it and then maintaining that particular plot over the summer, we plan to make the garden a truly communal as well as community project. Over the past four years we've been able to judge which vegetables do best in our space, and which are the least fragile to make them practical for delivery to the groups to whom we donate them. We will have seed on hand, but you are welcome to donate a package if you have excess in your own inventory.

So you will be able to help with the planting of the entire garden, come and weed at your leisure, and feel free to do the same type of weeding and maintenance in the flower beds if you spy the need.

Very soon, we will be sending out notice of the proposed planting days/evenings and asking that anyone who can spare an hour join us on one of those occasions. There is no need to let us know in advance, no long term commitment; this will be simply a plea for your assistance. We also believe it can be a wonderful way to connect with people you may not know in the congregation and, if you have little or no experience in gardening, to learn from our seasoned group of gardeners.

We welcome families to participate to give our children a sense of ownership in the property over which we are stewards.

Annual Planting of the Remembrance Garden

Rain or shine!

9 am

"Please bring a purple or pink petunia"

Almost six years ago, we created the heart-shaped garden on the north-west corner of the church property to honour the life of our beautiful Brittney McInnes.

Brittney's death in January of that year was a terrible tragedy for her family, the community, her church family and we felt that the new life in a garden would bring comfort to all. We decided that as well as making the garden a remembrance of Brittney, we would dedicate it to the memory of all women who have lost their lives through violence, especially our indigenous sisters.

GRAY POWER

The Calgary Philharmonic open senior rehearsals are on the following dates. We car pool from the church and usually go out for lunch after. Except on March 3rd it will have to be a quick snack as it's the same day as the world day of prayer service at our church, which starts at 1pm.

Friday June 2, 10am Mozart & Mahler with Andre Laplander Conductor - Roberto Minczuk Soloist - Andre Laplante, piano
Please email hgray64@icloud.com by Tuesday 23 May if interested in attending.

There are no tickets issued for the rehearsals; but we do have to book one week (or any earlier) before the rehearsal date to reserve our spots as space is limited.

Many thanks to Jacqueline Leeflang for her presentation on Solar Power. If you would like to do a quick calculation to see what kind of savings you might realize by adding a solar array to your house, go to <PVWatts.nrel.gov/index.php>. FAITH STORIES

An Evening with Matthew Brook

*Come one, come all.
Come, be inspired by faith in action.
Come, be inspired by God's amazing grace.
Come, be inspired by Matt Brook.*

Tuesday, May 16, 2017 7-8:30 pm
Light refreshments will be served

Matthew Brook is a Stress Engineer (P.Eng Mechanical) with Pi Engineering Inc.

Born and raised in Calgary and baptized as an adult at Lutheran Church of the Cross, Matt has immersed himself in small group adult studies, beginning with Starting Point and moving on to Luther and other studies. He recently completed the Anglican Cursillo weekend and is challenging the congregation to pick up where Jesus left off. We are called to teach, heal, love, transform. And we begin where we are.

Come and hear Matt share about his childhood, search for career, love, and a family of his own and how faith in God inspires him every day.

Faith Stories is a series sponsored by the Confirmation program of Lutheran Church of the Cross and intended to help every day people see God at work in their own lives, learn to ask guiding questions as they discern faith and action, and witness boldly to everyone around them.

Lutheran Church of the Cross

2:30pm (Doors open at 2:00pm)

The Cursillo Movement offers a three-day renewal experience providing people with a powerful experience of grace, forgiveness, and Christian community that restores hope for the church and world. People who experience a Cursillo weekend often remark that they feel the depth of God's love and a renewed connection to God's beloved community, the church. A number of people here at Church of the Cross have participated in this experience. One of them is Matthew Brook, who writes to all of us following his experience. If you would like to participate, please talk to Pastor Laura, or anyone you know who has completed this weekend experience.

What game are YOU playing?

It all started out as a game of "Simon Says" in the form of the Old Covenant. How better for God to lead His children, than with a simple children's game. Unfortunately, we were not very good at this game as demonstrated by the complete disobedience of many, and even the partial obedience of Abraham, Moses, Saul, King Jehoshaphat, and so on. For some interesting insights on partial obedience, see the A Lot of Trouble blog post (robpetau.wordpress.com/2017/03/25/a-lot-of-trouble/)

When God was born as a man in Jesus Christ, the game continued. Still "Simon Says", but with a perfect, physical example to follow. Kind of like a super fit aerobics instructor. So easy to follow right? Wrong! He showed us all the motions, and all we had to do was follow. What did we do? We didn't see the point. We didn't believe that this workout was necessary, i.e. "I'm fine with the extra 50 pounds". We got tired. We got human. We fired our instructor.

God realized, even before Jesus was born, that we were terrible at "Simon Says". We didn't find it fun, understand it, or even really participate. He realized that a new game was needed.

When Jesus Christ was crucified and resurrected, the long anticipated "New Game", New Covenant, began. "Simon Says" is over! Looking at the gospel of John 13:13-15 we see that Jesus has washed our feet, and so shall we wash one another's feet. Jesus did something to us, and we should do that same thing to others. What game does this sound like to you? It reminds me of my favourite childhood game, tag. So, how do we play, what's the current state of the game? Jesus tagged us, now WE are ALL "IT". We shall all go out with open arms, patience, understanding and love to share the grace of the Lord with all who need it. Let's face it. I need it, you need it, everyone needs it. So, go out and remember...

Tag, YOU are "IT"

Message from Our Bishop

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ –

I invite your prayers for the 12th Assembly of the Lutheran World Federation taking place May 10-16, 2017 in Windhoek, Namibia. The ELCIC will be represented by four delegates: National Bishop Susan Johnson, Rev. Katherine Altenburg, Dan LeBlanc and myself. In addition, I have been nominated by the North American region to serve as a council member of the LWF. Including travel time to Namibia I will be away May 7-19.

The Lutheran World Federation (LWF) is a global communion of 145 churches in the Lutheran tradition, representing over 74 million Christians in 98 countries. Once every six years, delegates from the member churches gather to convene an Assembly, and set the vision and priorities of the communion. As well as determining the direction of the LWF, we examine issues facing our churches, and worship together in a celebration of communion and cultural diversity. As the LWF's supreme authority, the Assembly is responsible for safeguarding the Constitution, electing its next set of leaders, acting on reports, speaking out on issues concerning the life and witness of member churches, and setting the overall direction for the ensuing period.

The theme of this Assembly is, Liberated by God's Grace, with sub-themes focusing on issues pertinent to our time: that salvation is not a gift that can be bought, and that exploitation of people and environmental degradation are critical issues of our time that demand our attention.

Each LWF Assembly is unique. It is shaped by the historical juncture in which it takes place, its venue, and the people who help shape its character, define its purposes and determine its outcomes. The Assembly is excited to meet in Namibia, a country that is deeply rooted in the Lutheran tradition.

The year 2017 marks the 500th anniversary of the Reformation. This Assembly is the venue for its global commemoration.

The choice of Namibia as the venue for the Twelfth Assembly has great significance for the LWF. The story of the relationship between the LWF and the Lutheran churches in Namibia is closely intertwined with the national struggle and victory against apartheid so that justice, freedom and dignity could be achieved for all Namibians. To anchor the Assembly in Namibia is to epitomize and celebrate this accompaniment made possible by the grace of God. It is also significant that the global commemoration of the Reformation is taking place in Namibia during the Assembly. With Lutherans comprising half the population, Namibia exemplifies the way in which the Lutheran faith has been embraced and has effectively taken root in other lands outside of Europe.

Hopes for the Twelfth Assembly are summed up in four key words: joyful, transformative, forward-looking, outward-looking.

Joyful – we celebrate diversity and the sense of belonging to one global communion;

Transformative – we will develop clear insights and a powerful narrative of what it means to work together towards a just, peaceful and reconciled world;

Forward-looking – we will embrace the future with courage and hope and in this process upholding the generation that embodies this future;

Outward-looking – we will strengthen ecumenical involvement and engagement in the world through compassionate diaconal concern and unwavering passion for the Gospel of Jesus Christ

In total, around 800 participants – including nearly 400 delegates – will gather in Namibia. The Assembly will be hosted by the three Lutheran member churches: Evangelical Lutheran Church in Namibia, Evangelical Lutheran Church in the Republic of Namibia and Evangelical Lutheran Church in Namibia-German Evangelical Lutheran Church. These churches are joined and work together through a common platform, the United Church Council of the Namibian Evangelical Lutheran Churches.

Draw your church together, O God, into one great company of disciples, together following our teacher Jesus Christ into every walk of life, together serving in Christ's mission to the world, and together witnessing to your love wherever you will send us; for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. (Evangelical Lutheran Worship – the mission of the church, pg. 75)

MISSION POTLUCK

A mashup of comedy, music and poetic monologues, Mission Potluck brings to the stage the story of a Lutheran Ladies League's ill-fated fundraising efforts in Gimli in the 1920s. This perfectly devised ensemble piece is inspired by the true story of First Lutheran's (Winnipeg) fundraising efforts to build Gimli's first seniors home in the early part of the century. One Trunk Theatre (OTT) flips history on its head in this play collectively created and performed by comedienne Claire Thérèse (Shakespeare in the City, A Behanding in Spokane, I Dream of Diesel(OTT)), Gwendolyn Collins (title role of RMT's Alice Through the Looking Glass & OTT's I Dream of Diesel, 204FM), Andraea Sartison (OTT Artistic Producer & co-creator of all productions), Jacqueline Harding (Mr. Burns (District Theatre Collective), Les Misérables (Rainbow Stage), A Man of No Importance (Dry Cold Productions)) and Anna-Laure Koop (Le Cercle Molère including Plus (+) Que Toi and Le Père, and Theatre of the Beat's A Bicycle Built for Two).

The show has toured Winnipeg and the Interlake region with the Nuna Festival from 2015-16. Audiences call it "hilarious", "best show I have seen in years", and say "the music was amazing", "you had my 80 year old grandmother and I laughing through the entire play". A play uniquely crafted for prairie people, Mission Potluck gives audiences an entertaining and heart-wrenching reflection of a familiar Canadian story... with an Icelandic twist. Mission Potluck is a perfect recipe for entertainment combining local history with physical comedy, and familiar hymns with the pop music of the day.

The 2017 tour is presented by Canadian Lutheran World Relief, one of Canada's most experienced relief and development agencies. <http://www.clwr.org>
