

JOINT STATEMENT

on the occasion of the Joint Catholic-Lutheran Commemoration of the Reformation
Lund, 31 October 2016

Abide in me as I abide in you. Just as the branch cannot bear fruit by itself unless it abides in the vine, neither can you unless you abide in me (John 15:4).

With thankful hearts

With this Joint Statement, we express joyful gratitude to God for this moment of common prayer in the Cathedral of Lund, as we begin the year commemorating the five hundredth anniversary of the Reformation. Fifty years of sustained and fruitful ecumenical dialogue between Catholics and Lutherans have helped us to overcome many differences, and have deepened our mutual understanding and trust. At the same time, we have drawn closer to one another through joint service to our neighbours – often in circumstances of suffering and persecution. Through dialogue and shared witness we are no longer strangers. Rather, we have learned that what unites us is greater than what divides us.

Moving from conflict to communion

While we are profoundly thankful for the spiritual and theological gifts received through the Reformation, we also confess and lament before Christ that Lutherans and Catholics have wounded the visible unity of the Church. Theological differences were accompanied by prejudice and conflicts, and religion was instrumentalized for political ends. Our common faith in Jesus Christ and our baptism demand of us a daily conversion, by which we cast off the historical disagreements and conflicts that impede the ministry of reconciliation. While the past cannot be changed, what is remembered and how it is remembered can be transformed. We pray for the healing of our wounds and of the memories that cloud our view of one another. We emphatically reject all hatred and violence, past and present, especially that expressed in the name of religion. Today, we hear God's command to set aside all conflict. We recognize that we are freed by grace to move towards the communion to which God continually calls us.

Our commitment to common witness

As we move beyond those episodes in history that burden us, we pledge to witness together to God's merciful grace, made visible in the crucified and risen Christ. Aware that the way we relate to one another shapes our witness to the Gospel, we commit ourselves to further growth in communion rooted in Baptism, as we seek to remove the remaining obstacles that hinder us from attaining full unity. Christ desires that we be one, so that the world may believe (cf. John 17:23).

Many members of our communities yearn to receive the Eucharist at one table, as the concrete expression of full unity. We experience the pain of those who share their whole lives, but cannot share God's redeeming presence at the Eucharistic table. We acknowledge our joint pastoral responsibility to respond to the spiritual thirst and hunger of our people to be one in Christ. We long for this wound in the Body of Christ to be healed. This is the goal of our ecumenical endeavours, which we wish to advance, also by renewing our commitment to theological dialogue.

We pray to God that Catholics and Lutherans will be able to witness together to the Gospel of Jesus Christ, inviting humanity to hear and receive the good news of God's redeeming action. We pray to God for inspiration, encouragement and strength so that we may stand together in service, upholding human dignity and rights, especially for the poor, working for justice, and rejecting all forms of violence. God summons us to be close to all those who yearn for dignity, justice, peace and reconciliation. Today in particular, we raise our voices for an end to the violence and extremism which affect so many countries and communities, and countless sisters and brothers in Christ. We urge Lutherans and Catholics to work together to welcome the stranger, to come to the aid of those forced to flee because of war and persecution, and to defend the rights of refugees and those who seek asylum.

More than ever before, we realize that our joint service in this world must extend to God's creation, which suffers exploitation and the effects of insatiable greed. We recognize the right of future generations to enjoy God's world in all its potential and beauty. We pray for a change of hearts and minds that leads to a loving and responsible way to care for creation.

One in Christ

On this auspicious occasion, we express our gratitude to our brothers and sisters representing the various Christian World Communions and Fellowships who are present and join us in prayer. As we recommit ourselves to move from conflict to communion, we do so as part of the one Body of Christ, into which we are incorporated through Baptism. We invite our ecumenical partners to remind us of our commitments and to encourage us. We ask them to continue to pray for us, to walk with us, to support us in living out the prayerful commitments we express today.

Calling upon Catholics and Lutherans worldwide

We call upon all Lutheran and Catholic parishes and communities to be bold and creative, joyful and hopeful in their commitment to continue the great journey ahead of us. Rather than conflicts of the past, God's gift of unity among us shall guide cooperation and deepen our solidarity. By drawing close in faith to Christ, by praying together, by listening to one another, by living Christ's love in our relationships, we, Catholics and Lutherans, open ourselves to the power of the Triune God. Rooted in Christ and witnessing to him, we renew our determination to be faithful heralds of God's boundless love for all humanity.

To the congregation of Lutheran Church of the Cross & Rev. Laura Holck,

We at the congregation of Trinity Lutheran Church in Whitehorse wish to thank you for sharing Pastor Phil Holck with us. It was a blessing to have him here. He began a journey with us that fills us with hope, has engaged our youth and has deepened our spiritual beliefs and our sense of community.

We know and recognize that by providing us this support, your congregation has needs which are more difficult to meet during his absence.

We just want you to know how thankful we are to you for sharing him with us.

Jean Dacko for the council and congregation.

New Studies Starting

Seven big conversations about faith.

This adult education course imaginatively explores central topics of Christianity:

God: Faith is a Quest
Religion: Spirituality is not Enough
Jesus: The Revolution of Love
Salvation: Abundant Life Now
Cross: Where God Is
Bible: A Book Like No Other
Church: An Imperfect Family

How does it work? In each Animate: Faith session, we will watch a video featuring a leading voice from the Christian faith, spend time in personal reflection and share ideas with the group. Animate: Faith is built on solid theology and allows adults the opportunity to strengthen faith through spirited discussion, wondering, and journaling. You will receive an illustrated Faith Journal providing space for personal reflection, notes, and prayer.

When? Sunday mornings, 9-9:45 am: December 4, 11 & 18; January 8, 15, 22 & 29

Where? Meeting Room 1 (down the hall on the other side of the fellowship hall)

This course is facilitated by Gates Fortier gatesf0@gmail.com

Children's Offerings for December and January

Dear young people and children:

Thank you for your offerings of toothpaste, tooth brushes and money. Good work!

As we work toward sending We Care Living and Learning kits to help students around the world, please bring small plastic pencil sharpeners, plastic rulers, and/or monetary offerings in December and January.

Our We Care kits will be assembled in February, when we celebrate CLWR as our Cause of the Month.

Your offerings of money help purchase We Care school bags and support our congregationally sponsored World Vision children.

Updates about World Vision sponsored children and community progress are normally posted on the Faith Formation board opposite the washrooms.

Praying for Young People

A special thanks to those of you who are praying for a young person connected to the congregation. If you are not praying for a young person by name every day, you are still invited to pray. Pick someone! Find a Daily Prayer with Proverbs guide by the mailboxes and pray the intentions expressed there. Pray as often as you like, as many days as you like, for our young people, the young people close to you, and all the young people of the world.

Advent is a great time to make a connection with the one(s) for whom you are praying. Do you have a special prayer or wish for that young person? What might you do or say to make your prayers “real” in their life?

It is common for Advent to become a preparation time for Christmas Day (the planning and buying of gifts, preparation of menus, decorating your living space, etc.) Can you make room for the coming Christ child by expressing care for one of Christ's beloved young people in a particularly special way?

December Cause of the Month Families in Need

Your continued support for food vouchers for families who struggle to meet their needs during the holiday season is much appreciated.

As our Christmas project we will again do the 'stuff a pair of socks' for the Mustard Seed. A box has been placed in the narthex to receive your donations of stuffed socks and/or needed items of stocking stuffers.

Items needed are: soap, shampoo and conditioner, razors, toothbrush and paste, Kleenex, band-aids, gloves, personal hygiene items, gift card from Tim Hortons, chocolate bar, mints, candy treats, small address book, pen & pad, bus tickets, a small cross, comb, lip balm, gift certificates to fast food restaurants, a note of encouragement for Christmas.

*December 11th is the final day for collection.

Our next meeting: January 23rd, 2017 at 7:00 pm.

A big Thank You to all the volunteers, youth and choir members who went to Bethany Care Center during the month of October. Many residents require help to get to and from the Sunday worship service and our help is much appreciated. Special music by choirs and Matthew Miller was also very much enjoyed by all.

December Book of the Month

"The Greatest Gift"

Unwrapping the Full Love Story of Christmas

by Ann Voskamp

This Advent, Ann Voskamp will help us celebrate the lineage and the majesty of God's greatest gift, Jesus Christ. Her work will inform our communal devotional life, our home devotions, and our corporate worship.

Beginning with Jesse, the father of David, The Greatest Gift retraces the epic pageantry of mankind, from Adam to the Messiah, with each day's reading pointing to the coming promise of Christ.

Pick up a Jesse tree and ornaments and/or an Advent calendar at church quickly! Advent starts November 27 and these resources begin December 1. These use the symbols and stories reflected in The Greatest Gift.

Blue Christmas: The Longest Night of the Year

The Advent and Christmas seasons are seasons of hope, joy, and excitement. They are often marked by merriment and happiness as the church celebrates the promise of the coming Christ child. But what about the pain and hurt people may be experiencing because of what's going on in the world or in their individual lives? What about people who are grieving, in pain, or simply not feeling "the Christmas spirit"?

On Wednesday December 21, Church of the Cross will host a "Blue Christmas" or "Longest Night of the Year" service. On the evening of the winter solstice (the longest night of the year), we will gather with our concerns, worries, pain, and grief, acknowledge our struggles before God, share the sacraments and a time of healing, and look to the coming Christ child for our hope.

Amid the hustle and bustle of the season, this is tremendous witness to those who are struggling in our community. This service is a witness to everyone that the Christ child comes as a sign of hope in the face of despair. And it's a witness that we are intentional about upholding members of our community in whatever season of life they may find themselves. This service is part of the ministry of Church of the Cross Prayer and Care.

SPLASHED WITH PROMISE

Have you ever wondered "What is the meaning of the Faith Chest that is presented to each baptized child?" This chest is part of a ministry to "pass on the faith", a visible means to symbolize the commitment of the congregation to the child and his/her parents. It is also a means to present the parents and child with tools for teaching and learning, to nurture the promises made on the day of baptism. The stole, placed on the child by the Pastor, symbolizes the "yoke" of the child to Christ and to the congregation.

Each Faith Chest contains:

- Quilted Chest Liner
- Stole - in the color of the liturgical season in which the baptism takes place. This Stole is imprint-ed with the child's name and the date, and carries the Splashed with Promise symbol - dove, shell, water droplets, and water, all symbols of baptism.
- Baptismal Napkin embroidered with a cross.
- Baptismal Candle to be lit on each anniversary of baptism.
- Baptismal Certificate.
- Christian books and age related resources.
- Spark Story Bible
- Luther's Small Catechism.
- Photo Album.

Visitors are assigned at the time of Baptism and maintain contact with the family until the child enters Sunday School (age 3).

Turn your old cell phone into a tree.

We are recycling used cell phones and smart tablets to support the environment and the goals of the 500th Anniversary of the Reformation celebration. The Evangelical Lutheran Church in Canada has set a goal to plant 500,000 trees in Canada and around the world by October 31, 2017. You can support this initiative by donating your used cell phone or smart tablet to Lutheran Church of the Cross (donation box in the office), or by making a monetary offering to the 500th Anniversary initiative (make cheques payable to Lutheran Church of the Cross and write "Reformation initiative" on the memo line).

Presenting the We Care Quick Kit!

No time to assemble a Learning and Living Kit on your own? We're excited to introduce the We Care Quick Kit: a new way to send a tangible and transformative gift to a child in need. A $15 donation from you allows us to buy and assemble Learning and Living Kits right at our warehouse to be included in an upcoming shipment overseas. Please go to the CLWR website to learn more or to pledge a gift: <http://www.clwr.org/wecarequickkits.cfm>

ELCIC members, congregations sponsor over 500 refugees

Winnipeg, 17 November 2016 - Evangelical Lutheran Church in Canada (ELCIC) members and congregations have come together to sponsor over 500 refugees!

For over a year, ELCIC members have been engaged in the ELCIC Reformation Challenge as one of the ways to mark the 2015-17 emphasis the church has been lifting up around the 500th anniversary of the Reformation.

The announcement that the goal to sponsor 500 refugees has been achieved was met with great excitement.

"I am delighted we have met the first of our Reformation Challenge goals," said ELCIC National Bishop Susan Johnson.

Bishop Johnson noted that when the challenge was first adopted by the ELCIC's National Church Council the goals were considered to be 'stretch goals.' "Council members thought we would be better off to try to reach more challenging goals and come short, than to set our goals too low and stop before we reached our full potential," said Bishop Johnson. "To be just over one year into the challenge and to have reached the goal of sponsoring 500 refugees is inspiring. This truly is a sign of our church growing In Mission for Others. I'm humbled, joyful and proud of our church!"

The Inter-Cultural Dialogue Institute of Calgary is pleased to announce a public meeting of representatives of the Jewish, Christian and Muslim communities of Calgary in an inter-faith dialogue setting. The dialogue will focus on our common roots through the recognized Father of Faith: Abraham.

Meeting on December 1, 2016 at 6:30 pm at the downtown campus of the University of Calgary, 906 8 Ave SW, each representative will present a lesson from the life of the prophet Abraham. Sharing from their own scriptures, it will be an opportunity for the three different faiths to share a perspective of what can be learned from the life of Abraham. There will be an opportunity for questions and dialogue both between the speakers and the public as well. This evening offers an open chance for listening to and better understanding each other in a diverse multi-faith setting.

The three clerics coming together to represent each faith are Rabbi Mark Glickman of Temple B'nai Tikvah, Pastor Anthony Greco of Calgary Life Church and Imam Navaid Aziz of the Islamic Information Society of Calgary.

Admission to the event is free, however as seating is limited, registration for the event is highly recommended. To register, please go to <http://idicalgary.com>

The Inter-Cultural Dialogue Institute seeks to foster dialogue between people of different background within the city of Calgary for mutual understanding and respect.
